V1 Two o'clock this morning, If she should come a calling
I couldn't dream of turning him away,
And if it got hot and hectic, I know he'd be electric
I'd let him take his chances with me, You see,
he gets what he wants.

Ch1 'Cause he's heart and soul, he's hot and cold.
He's got it all, hot loving every night
Whoa, Whoooooah

V2 Can't you see him standing there, see how he looks, see how he cares
I let him steal the night away from me.
Nine o'clock this morning, he left without a warning
I let him take advantage of me, you see, he got what he wanted.

Ch2
