Every Day Is A Winding Road   Sheryl Crow

Intro  C#    F#   X  2

C#                                       F#                   B
V1 I hitched a ride with a vending machine repair man
C#                                            F#              B
   He says he's been down this road more than twice
C#                              F#
   He was high on intellectualism
C#                                       F#
I've never been there but the brochure looks nice
G#m              C#    G#m         C#
B1 Jump in, let's go, Lay back, enjoy the show
G#m                      C#
Everybody gets high, everybody gets low,
G#m                              B
These are the days when anything goes

     C#7                          F#
Ch1 Everyday is a winding road
C#7                    F#
   I get a little bit closer
     C#7                  F#
Everyday is a faded sign
C#7                 F#
   I get a little bit closer (to feeling fine)

C#   F#   X  2

C#                              F#            B
V2 He's got a daughter he calls Easter
      C#               F#          B
She was born on a Tuesday night
      C#                          F#
I'm just wondering why I feel so all alone
       C#                      F#
Why I'm a stranger in my own life

B2

Ch2 X 2

C#   F#  X 2

C#                                            F#                        B
V3I've been swimming in a sea of anarchy
C#                              F#
I've been living on coffee and nicotine
C#                                           F#
I've been wondering if all the thing I've seen
C#                                  F#
Were ever real, were ever really happening
F#
(were ever really happening)

Ch3  X 2  (no feeling fine)

    C#7                                    F#
Everyday is a winding road,
    C#7                                    F#
Everyday is a winding road,
    C#7                                      F#
Everyday is a winding road
